CONFIDENTIAL

15. [redacted] Received a call from Ethan Stone, in the office of Representative Michael Harrington (D., Mass.). Stone said the office had an inquiry from a constituent regarding the organizational structure of the Agency and Stone wanted whatever information we could provide on the subject. I told him that the information was classified except for the very top levels of the Agency, which I explained to him.

16. [redacted] Called Sally Shelton, on the staff of Senator Lloyd Bentsen (D., Tex.), who asked about a wire service item which indicated that the Senator had stated that the Agency provided him with information concerning Soviet financial assistance to the Communist Party of Portugal. I told her that it had been clear from our earlier conversation that the Agency had only press reports relating to this information. She acknowledged that this was our understanding and said that State had told her the same thing. Senator Bentsen, in his statement, had apparently referred to press reports and allegations but the news reports did not report his statements accurately. In conclusion, I pointed out to her the difficulty that these kinds of inaccuracies impose upon the Agency.

17. [redacted] Picked up from Michael Cavanagh, staff of the House Post Office and Civil Service Subcommittee on Postal Facilities, Mail and Labor Management, the testimony before his Committee for retyping of the transcript.

18. [redacted] Delivered a letter to Senator Frank Church's (D., Idaho) office at the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence Operations.

19. [redacted] Received a call from Page Penutson, in the office of Senator Warren G. Magnuson (D., Wash.), who inquired as to the procedures one would follow in submitting a request to the Agency under the Freedom of Information Act. I gave her the name and address of the Agency's FOI Coordinator.

20. [redacted] Al Tarabochia, Chief Investigator, Senate Judiciary Subcommittee on Internal Security, called and inquired as to the
